DANGER

Highly poisonous if ingested
by Parliament during elections

Symptoms include: severe loss of sovereignty, political nausea, bureaucratic paralysis leading to economic impairment, unlimited immigration, cultural atrophy and massive rupturing of personal freedoms.

If elected in sufficient quantities, may cause acute democratic failure and national death.

Do you think your country is being poisoned by rotten policies, cultural decay and change for change's sake? Do you think there is no major difference between the three main parties?

So do we. Join us and let's make Britain great again!
