

The Houses of TREASON!

The E.U. has usurped your country's sovereignty!

On the 29th October, 2004 Tony Blair signed the European draft constitution despite knowing full well that polls have consistently shown that the British people are opposed to the E.U. and to further E.U. integration.

TONY BLAIR – Liar and Traitor

In a nationwide MORI opinion poll in March, 2001, 52% of those offering an opinion were in favour of Britain's leaving the E.U. now, 71% wanted a Referendum on continued membership, and 75% considered that the British people had not received sufficient information on the implications of our being in the E.U.

treason (trɛ'zən)

n. Violation of allegiance toward one's country or sovereign.

In passing the 1972 European Communities Act, our Parliament renounced its own sovereignty.

It made the British people subject to enactments and decrees from foreign powers, and ended its own accountability to the electorate.

Our politicians have deliberately denied the ultimate sovereignty of the people, even though Parliament is constitutionally the servant and defender of this.

A cornerstone of our Constitution is that no Parliament can bind its successors; but the Act of 1972 unconstitutionally purported (Section 2.4) to be mandatory upon all succeeding Parliaments.

“A nation which seeks to trade its political independence for economic gain deserves to lose both”

— Thomas Jefferson
